❺-2 Important Notes for Applicants

◉ Important Notes on Document Submission

① Applicants must submit original documents by post or in person. Submitted documents are not returnable.

② All documents must be prepared in accordance with the above list of required documents and submitted to the Graduate School Administration Team by the document submission deadline.

③ If any of the required documents are not written in Korean or English, a notarized translation into Korean or English must be submitted.

④ Only documents issued within 180 days prior to the document submission deadline are considered valid. However, if the issuing institution's validity period is less than 180 days, its validity period will apply.

⑤ The applicants who have changed their names must submit the additional evidential documents.

⑥ When applying for VISA (or changing the status), documents such as educational certificates and financial guarantee (Certificate of Deposit Balance) can be needed in accordance with the provisions of the Overseas Diplomatic Service (or Immigration Office), so please prepare them separately

⑦ If the original document cannot be sumbitted due to re-issuance restriction, a copy of the original document certified by Consul or Apostille, notarized as a true copy of the original, must be submitted.

⑧ Applicants are responsible for any issues arising from incomplete submission of required documents.

⑨ Applicants are responsible for any errors or omissions in the information entered during the online application, and the University shall not be held responsible for any resulting issues.

⑩ The application is considered complete only after the application fee has been successfully paid. After the application deadline, applicants may not change their selected department or major, cancel their application, request a refund of the application fee, or have their submitted documents returned.

⑪ Additional documents may be requested if further supporting documentation is required.

- Examples -

1. If a Chinese national has acquired a degree in the US : Apostille confirmation, or a consul confirmation from the Korean consul stationed in the US or the American consul stationed in Korea
2. If an American citizen has acquired a degree in China : Education/Degree Verification Center report by the Ministry of Education in China or a consul confirmation of a Korean diplomatic mission in China

◉ Important Notes on Application

① As a general rule, applicants are selected based on their total scores, in order of rank, by department and degree program. However, the number of applicants selected may be adjusted based on the circumstances of each department or major.

② An applicant may not apply to more than one department or degree program.

③ Applicants who are admitted through the 1st admission must withdraw their admission before applying for an 2nd admission.

④ Applicants must apply under the appropriate admission category: New Admission (Master's/Integrated) or the Bachelor's - Master's Linked Program (Master's/Integrated). Applicants are responsible for any incorrect application.
However, if the department administering the the Bachelor's - Master's Linked Program requests an adjustment due to an incorrect application before the final document submission deadline, the application may be reviewed for adjustment.
※ Changes between the Master's program and the Integrated program are not permitted.

⑤ If it is found that an applicant was admitted or enrolled based on false information, forged or altered documents, or other fraudulent means, the admission or enrollment will be canceled.

⑥ Admission scores will not be disclosed.

⑦ If an admitted applicant fails to cooperate with the University's request for academic credential verification, their academic credentials may be deemed invalid, and admission may be canceled even after enrollment.

⑧ Applicants may apply to a different department (major) from that of their previous degree for both Master's and Doctoral programs.

⑨ Applicants who apply to a different department from that of their previous degree or who have graduated from a special graduate school must complete supplementary courses in accordance with the University regulations.

⑩ In some departments offering a Master's program, a Master's degree may be obtained by completing a degree project or research paper in lieu of a thesis. As the degree requirements vary by department, applicants should contact the relevant department for details.

◉ Important Notes on Registration and Refund

① Admitted applicants must pay the tuition fee by the designated deadline. Failure to pay the tuition fee will result in cancellation of admission. (Applicants must check their admission letter and registration instructions individually on the University website.)

② If a newly admitted or transferred student is found to fall under any of the following circumstances, admission may be canceled even after enrollment or graduation. In such cases, submitted documents and tuition fees will not be refunded. However, if the semester for which the tuition fee was paid has not yet ended, the tuition fee may be refunded in accordance with Article 6 of the「Regulations on University Tuition Fees」(「대학등록금에 관한 규칙」 제6조).

1. If the applicant is found not to meet the eligibility requirements or violates the rules on multiple applications and double registration stated in the Admission Guidelines.
2. If the applicant was admitted or enrolled through other fraudulent means.

Ⅲ. D-2 VISA Guidance for Admitted Students

❶ Application for Cerfiticate of Admidsion

① -1 Certificate of Admission

The Certificate of Admission is an official document certifying that an international student has been admitted to a degree program at Dankook University. It is required for the issuance of a visa (D-2) or a change of status of stay for study purposes. Dankook University issues the Certificate of Admission to students who have completed the admission and registration procedures in accordance with applicable laws and regulations concerning immigration and international students.

① -2 Certificate of Admission Application Process

Tuition Payment → Apply for the Certificate of Admission (the application link will be sent separately) → Dankook University will send the Certificate of Admission and the University's Business Registration Certificate individually to each student

❷ VISA Information

② -1 Important Notes

When applying for a visa (or changing the status of stay) after admission, you may be required to submit documents such as original academic verification documents and an original certificate of deposit balance, depending on the requirements of the Korean diplomatic mission abroad or the Immigration Office. Please prepare these documents separately in advance.

② -2 Required Documents

〈D-4 Visa holder〉

* Students must check the expiration date of their stay period for their Korean language training program. If the expiration date is before the university's group application, students must notify the University in advance.
* The change to D-2 visa must be completed before the start of the semester, and students may not leave Korea before the change to D-2 status has been completed.
